"Full Sail gave me a very good base, and I completely credit them with the fact that [my career took off] in three years instead of 10."
"...I sit in front of the best singers on the planet and tell them to sing until I am happy."

STEVE CAINAS

Title: Production Coordinator

"My favorite part is the places it takes me. Some of the locations that we have filmed at, I would have never found in my life."

"This is the one thing I've done my entire adult life, and I enjoy it. There's something about this—there's an adrenaline flow. Every day is challenging and you never know what to expect."

SEAN SPUEHLER

Recording Engineer
Full Sail Class of '94
Credits: Madonna, No Doubt, Beck

About Full Sail:
"Listen, they definitely jumpstart your career. You have to take what they offer and use it wisely. But believe me, every studio I go to, I run into Full Sail people. It's pretty consistent. On all of the last sessions I worked on, there was a Full Sail person who was assisting. Now that's incredible."

MIGUEL MOLINARI

Title: Associate Interface Designer
Full Sail Class of '99
Currently working on games for Electronic Arts (EA Sports)

"My official position is Associate Interface Designer, but I'm more of a scripter. I do more of the code side of interface. So, it's kind of strange being a programmer in the art department. Instead of my title, I like to call myself Ambassador of Peace because I bring both worlds together."
