

It took four years to get here!
What's next?

Lee

Okay, I know I need more than just my high school education to get where I want to go. Focused training sounds good to me. Imagine... I could be working in an exciting career before my friends even decide where to go or what to do. Who do I talk to now?

The best way to compete is to join the race.

Katie

I want a chance at competing in today's job market. I know the trend is toward specific skills. And I don't want to spend another four years in school. Career training is just the edge I need at a time when I really need it. Look out world—here I come!

Megan

What do I know about getting ready for my career? I'm fresh out of high school. I have many interests. What I need now is direction and a focus. I do know this... I want my resume to say I have the skills and I'm eager to get started. Help!
